LONDON DESIGNER NATALIA MIYAR CURATES AN OTHERWORLDLY DINING ROOM INSPIRED BY HER MIAMI ROOTS

PRODUCED BY JACQUELINE TERREBONNE

"The work of Hernan Bas is magical in the way it combines fantasy and reality," says Natalia Miyar. "His dreamy landscapes and incredible colors remind me of my childhood in Miami. I envision this work in a dining room there, where its arresting quality could be set off by an equally graphic composition."

NATALIA MIYAR

Striking a balance between spaces that feel at once natural and glamorous, London-based designer Natalia Miyar is a master of the mix. She doesn't shy away from utilizing a kaleidoscopic palette of colors or juxtaposing radically different textures such as velvet and stone. Often looking to art for inspiration, she made a major impression at this year's Masterpiece London art fair by creating a private dining room sheathed in a custom Fromental wallpaper that channeled both the artwork of Wifredo Lam and her Cuban-American heritage. nataliamiyar.com
